Order

No. DE/Rev. Pet/. 3456/2002

In the matter of Revision Petition under Rule 19A of the Goa Police Subordinate Service (Discipline & Appeal) Rules, 1975, as amended from time to time.

Ex. HC-1512, Lavu S. Gawas has preferred a Revision Petition under Rule 19A of the Goa Police Subordinate Service (Discipline & Appeal) Rules, 1975, as amended from time to time against the order dated 28-1-2002 of the Dy. Inspector General of Police, Goa (Appellate Authority), whereby his appeal to reinstate him into service was dismissed. He has also put forth under the present Revision Petition a request to quash and set aside the order dated 14-7-1999 of the Disciplinary Authority i.e. Superintendent of Police (South), Margao whereby he was awarded the penalty of Compulsory Retirement from service.

2. I have gone through the Revision Petition and the documents leading to the Compulsory Retirement of the Petitioner. I also heard him in person. He explained that the criminal case registered against him ended in acquittal and hence he be taken back in service. When he was questioned as to why he tore off the suspension order and abused his superiors, he denied having done so and stated he was having hypertension and was under treatment for the same and submitted medical certificate of appropriate authority. He also submitted that he is getting a meagre amount of monthly pension which is not sufficient to bring-up his family consisting of three minor school going children and wife. That he is unemployed and has no other source of income.

3. Brief facts of this case are that:

The Petitioner was dealt with a regular Departmental Enquiry under Rule 6 of the Goa Police Subordinate Service (Discipline and Appeal) Rules, 1975, as amended from time to time, for

- i) On 25-8-1998 at about 12.30 hours and on 1-9-1998 he had entered in the residential house of Smt. Mayavati Parab of Margao, damaged her house and threatened her of dire consequences without any provocations, etc and had thereby involved in Margao Town PS Cr. No. 401/98 u/s 448, 427, 295, 504, 506(ii) of IPC. By doing so, he failed to maintain cordial relation with members of public.

- ii) On 10-9-1998, he had initially refused to acknowledge receipt of suspension order dated 4-9-1998 and later received it and tore in front of Pl, Margao Town P. S. and other two officials, thereby displaying insubordination.

4. The Petitioner was also placed under suspension with effect from 4-9-1998 following his misconduct with Smt. Mayavati Parab w/o Babu Parab r/o H. No. 109, Sailwada, Margao and subsequent registration of a criminal case bearing No. 401/98 u/s 448, 427, 295, 504, 506(ii) IPC.

5. On the basis of the documentary and oral evidence collected during the course of regular Departmental Enquiry, both the charges framed the Petitioner were held as proved vide Inquiry Report No. PSI/Collem/979/1999 dated 8-4-1999.

6. Tentatively agreeing with findings of the regular Departmental Enquiry, the Petitioner was issued with a copy of the Inquiry Report along with a Memorandum dated 13-4-1999 to Show Cause as to why a penalty of dismissal from service should not be imposed upon him. He was also afforded opportunity to appear before the Disciplinary Authority for personal hearing. His representation dated 27-5-1999 against the proposed penalty was considered by the Disciplinary Authority and all the points raised by him were dealt with in the speaking order dated 14-7-1999 issued by him. It was observed that the Petitioner was found incorrigible by the Disciplinary Authority and hence his retention in Police Service was considered undesirable in public interest. However, the Disciplinary Authority took a lenient view and reduced the proposed penalty to Compulsory Retirement from service vide impugned order No. DSP(S)/Estt/DE 10/98/1239/99 dated 14-7-1999. Accordingly, the Petitioner stood Compulsorily Retired with effect from 14-7-1999.

6. Thereafter, the Petitioner preferred an appeal against the order dated 14-7-1999 requesting to reinstate him into service. In the meantime, the criminal case which was pending against him ended in acquittal giving benefit of doubt to him vide Judgement and Order dated 15-1-2001 of JMFC, Margao due to failure of the prosecution to prove the case. Considering all aspects and also hearing the Petitioner personally by the Appellate Authority i.e. DIGP, his appeal was rejected vide DIGP's Order dated 28-1-2002. The present Revision Petition is against this order.

7. Main reasons for imposing the penalty of Compulsory Retirement from service upon the petitioner were that he acted in a most indisciplined way and tore off the suspension order in front of his superiors and abused them and also involved in criminal cases in which he was allegedly harassing his neighbour. It has come on record that both the criminal cases registered against the Petitioner ended in acquittal. The Judgements and Orders in both the cases were produced before the Appellate Authority while considering his appeal. The only charge remained against the Petitioner was that he tore off the suspension order and abused his superiors. The explanation of the Petitioner to this incident is that he was having hypertension and he was under medical treatment. He had produced medical certificate from the Directorate of Health Services indicating that he was under the medical treatment of Dr. Rajendra Hedge of the Directorate of Health Services for depression and hypertension during the relevant period. The point now remains for my consideration is whether the extreme penalty of Compulsory Retirement from service is commensurate with his misconduct i.e. tearing off suspension order, etc.- No doubt his misbehaviour with his superiors was against the norms of discipline in Police Force for which he regrets and repents and promised that he would not give any cause for complaint against him in future. He had put in a number of service of years in the Department. Both the criminal cases filed against him were also ended in acquittal. Taking into consideration all these aspects and in view of the sickness of the Petitioner due to hypertension during the relevant period, the punishment of Compulsory Retirement inflicted upon the Petitioner is considered to be little bit harsh. Moreover, the Petitioner has also got to look after three minor school going children and wife. A lenient view is, therefore, taken. A penalty of reduction to a lower post for a period of 30 months (two and half years) shall meet the ends of justice. The order No. DE/Appeal. 2/99/877/2002 dated 28-1-2002 of the Appellate Authority and No. DSP(S)/Estt./DE.10/98/1239/1999 dated 14-7-1999 of the Disciplinary Authority are hereby set aside. Instead, the Petitioner is hereby awarded the penalty of reduction to lower post of Police Constable in the time scale of pay of Rs. 3050-75-3950-80-4590 for a period of 30 months (two and half years) with effect from the date of issue of this order. Orders regarding his pay and allowance will be issued separately. His is reinstated into service with effect from the date of issue of this order. The period of his suspension with effect from 4-9-1998 to 13-7-1999 and the intervening period from the date of Compulsory Retirement from 14-7-1999 to the date prior to his joining the service is treated as period not spent on duty for all the purposes. He shall not be entitled for any salary, etc. during this period. The entire amount of Gratuity, Savings Fund, etc. drawn and paid to him pursuant to Order No. DSP(S)/Estt/DE. 10/98/1239/1999 dated 14-7-1999 of the Superintendent of Police, South, shall be recovered from him immediately and credited to Government. On reinstatement into service, he is posted at GRP ' C ' Coy at Altinho, Panaji.

Gurcharan S. Sandhu, Director General of Police, Goa.
